Experience

Rudolph Giuliani, a name partner in the firm since 2005, has played a key role in the efforts of the New York office to expand and enhance the firm's corporate, broker/dealer, bankruptcy and white-collar criminal defense client service teams. In addition to his decades of government and public service, where he gained extensive trial, appellate, public policy and regulatory experience, Mr. Giuliani honed his many skills and talents in the private sector, as both a member of prestigious New York law firms and as head of Giuliani Partners, a consulting firm.

A native of Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Giuliani began his career as a law clerk to United States District Court Judge Lloyd F. MacMahon in the Southern District of New York. In 1970, he joined the office of the U.S. Attorney and was soon named Chief of the Narcotics Unit and promoted to the position of Executive U.S. Attorney. In 1973, at age 29, Mr. Giuliani was placed in charge of the police corruption cases resulting from the highly publicized Knapp Commission report.

Two years later, Mr. Giuliani was recruited to Washington, D.C., where he was appointed Associate Deputy Attorney General and chief of staff to the Deputy Attorney General. In 1977, Mr. Giuliani returned to New York to practice law and joined the firm of Patterson, Belknap, Webb and Tyler.
