Experience

Warren Harris heads the firm's appellate practice. He is a past chair of the IADC Appellate Practice Committee, the ABA Tort and Insurance Practice Section Appellate Advocacy Committee, the State Bar of Texas Appellate Section, and the Houston Bar Association Appellate Practice Section. Mr. Harris is President of the University of Houston Law Alumni Association, Vice Chair of the Texas Bar Foundation Fellows, and a director of the Houston Bar Association. He is a frequent lecturer and has spoken at more than 100 legal education seminars.

Mr. Harris has handled hundreds of appeals and original proceedings in the Texas Supreme Court, United States Supreme Court, and state and federal courts of appeals, including handling many cases that were originally tried by other law firms. He also assists in pretrial and trial strategy, preservation of error at trial, preparation of and arguing jury charges, post-verdict proceedings in trial courts, and analysis of the trial record for appellate potential. He has experience in preparation of appellate briefs and oral advocacy in appellate proceedings.

Mr. Harris served as an adjunct professor in appellate advocacy at The University of Texas School of Law and The University of Houston Law Center and served as a briefing attorney for the Supreme Court of Texas.
