

ACCOUNTING AND LEGAL MALPRACTICE

Bracewell represents accounting-services and legal-services providers in a broad range of malpractice claims, including negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, and conflicts of interest. We also defend providers in matters arising from their clients' business transactions, including business sales, securities issues, patent prosecutions, preparation of tax returns and financial reports, and real estate purchases, sales and leases.