

TRUSTS AND ESTATE PLANNING

Bracewell attorneys understand that estate planning is a very personal process; every client is unique. Our skill and experience enables us to pursue a variety of sophisticated strategies to assist our clients to protect their wealth and pass it on to their loved ones. But for us, good estate planning involves more. We are committed to understanding each client's goals and concerns. We explain options and answer questions with as much simplicity or intricacy as our clients may desire. We work with our clients to craft wills, trusts, impaired judgment documents, business entities and charitable organizations to provide practical solutions that are as conservative or aggressive, and as simple or sophisticated, as their needs require.

Our lawyers strive to develop estate plans best suited to our clients' particular needs, through techniques such as wills, testamentary trusts, revocable trusts, powers of attorney, health care directives, and living wills. We he