

INTERNAL INVESTIGATIONS

Bracewell & Giuliani represents public and private corporations, officers, boards of directors and senior executives in internal, government and agency investigations. We provide experienced guidance on corporate compliance and governance issues related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, SEC regulations, Department of Justice compliance standards, and exchange listing requirements.

Our lawyers work with clients to create a governance infrastructure that supports accuracy, accountability and transparency on even the most sensitive corporate governance issues. We provide confidential, effective advice regarding:

- Special inquiries of fraud and misconduct allegations
- Internal audits and forensic investigations
- Internal control issues
- Recovery of assets taken through illegal schemes
- Development of corporate compliance programs
- Disclosure obligations and requirements
- Counseling boards of directors in
